Schools and Hostels

As per the nefarious plans of Christian missionaries to convert the tribals , Rajasthan also is the target like other parts of the country. The districts deprived of basic facilities is being converted by deception and temptation under the garb of service in this tribal dominated area of southern Rajasthan. The Naxalites are also spreading separatism in the region, with the goal of ending these anti-national intrigues in the area, the Banswara pariyojana has made schools and hostels a means to reach out to the brothers of these tribal communities who are neglected at the economic, educational and social levels. These initiatives are being run in southern Rajasthan districts of Banswara, Dungarpur, and Chittore . Schools and hostels started with the participation of the villagers with the basic mantra of education, rites and fraternity. Initially, schools were started in small villages through local youths who have studied 10th-12th, the students studying in these schools run by the Banswara project in a dedicated sense, with good values and good test results. Due to increase in the prestige and affinity of schools in the area, the number of schools in the area started increasing. At present 1275 teachers / teachers are providing cultural education to 25333 students studying in 334 schools (203 Primary, 93 Upper Primary 17 Secondary and 21 Higher Secondary) operated by Banswara Project. All the schools are accredited by the Department of Education, Government of Rajasthan.

- Students who have missed studies, and are denied admission in other schools, are given admission in these schools, so that they can complete their further studies and fix their future.
- All the other activities carried out in the area by the Banswara project, these schools have a major role in all of them.
